

This page is an example of the abstract format. It provides guidelines to assist in the preparation of your abstract and to facilitate compilation of the 71st Tuna Conference proceedings. The proceedings will be available at the start of the Conference.

(Title) GUIDELINES FOR 71st TUNA CONFERENCE ABSTRACTS

(Author(s))

Bill Fish

(Affiliation(s))

Pelagic Community

(Senior author's address)

53 Longline Drive
Statistical Area 77, Pacific Ocean

The deadline for inclusion of your abstract in the proceedings is April 23, 2021.

Abstracts must be submitted for both papers and poster presentations and should be clear in stating objectives and summarizing results and conclusions. If you are describing ongoing research, you should summarize results obtained to date. The title, authors, agency or school affiliation, and senior author's mailing address should be included. Do not include literature citations.

Each abstract will be printed posted to the Tuna Conference website at this link: <https://www.tunaconference.org/proceedings->

Abstracts should be submitted via e-mail to info@tunaconference.org.. The preferred format is MS Word; plain ASCII text files are also acceptable.

Owyn Snodgrass, Chair of the 71st Tuna Conference

Stephanie Flores, Tuna Conference Coordinator

E-mail: info@tunaconference.org

Visit the Tuna Conference's home page at: www.tunaconference.org